Developmental Editor, Author, Publisher, Workshop Leader

I am listed among Top Ten Editors in New England (though I live on NC coast); I edit books worldwide; I edit Duke University Press journals. MIT, UMass, & Harvard recommend me to faculty. I lead Beaufort Writing Group workshops; I started Kakapo Press. I am an Educator with 30+ years of experience as college and secondary teacher of literature, creative & technical writing; environmental decision-making; 20 years as government science editor and policy analyst. I've had a US Coast Guard Captain's license 36 years. As naturalist, I travel to witness natural diversity. For my popular-science Gulf Stream book, I am walking Celtic coastal paths. My poems won 2018 Gail O'Day Prize, 2012 Guy Owen Prize; 2016 Applewhite finalist; appear in Literary Trails of Eastern NC. My books are Let Go or Hold Fast, Beaufort Poems; Song of Moving Water (novel); Salt Runs in My Blood (poetry); and Landfall Along the Chesapeake (nonfiction boat adventure). I row, sail, swim, practice yoga, walk beaches with my Boykin spaniel Kiwi, call contra dances, play bass fiddle, plant community gardens.

Work History
